People's Republic of China Scholarship

A scholarship of up to £1,000 may be available to students who have completed their studies on approved programmes at one of the university's partner or link institutions in China and who progress to certain programmes on one of our three campuses. This will be agreed with the International Office prior to arrival for registration and before the start of the programme. To qualify, students must pay tuition fees in full on registration.

Maritime Greenwich World Heritage Site, location of our Greenwich Campus

Alumni Progression Bursary

International students registering for a postgraduate programme after completing a degree programme at either a University of Greenwich campus or partner college are eligible for a 10% reduction on the postgraduate tuition fee. The 10% reduction is applied after all scholarships and bursaries (where applicable) are deducted from the student fees.

Students who have studied an undergraduate programme at one of our international collaborative partner institutions and are progressing on to a non-government/research funded postgraduate programme at the university may also apply for an Alumni Progression Bursary.

The programme must run a minimum of one academic year, and the reduction is applied upon full payment of the full-time tuition fee. This reduction does not apply to PGCE/CertEd and Diploma of Architecture programmes and programmes such as the MOst, MEng and MPharm which attract undergraduate fees.

The student is encouraged to join the university's alumni association, which offers a wide range of benefits for past students (alumni) and is free to join (visit www.gre.ac.uk/alumni for further information). If a student is awarded this discount, his or her details will be passed to the alumni association.

For further information about these and other awards and scholarships, please visit www.gre.ac.uk/students/finance.

Pre-registration

For programmes that are based on our three campuses, a pre-registration deposit of £3,000 is required for all pre-degree, undergraduate and postgraduate programmes at the time of accepting an offer. The deposit acts as part of the tuition fees and reduces the tuition fees payable on registration.

For applicants applying for their first Tier 4 student visa from outside the UK, the deposit and tuition fees paid in excess of the deposit are refundable only where the applicant provides evidence that the application for a student visa was not accepted for the year the academic offer was made. If an applicant defers his or her offer of a place to the next university intake, the deposit will be transferred to the new intake and will be refundable only where the applicant provides evidence that the application for a student visa was not accepted for that intake. All refunds will be to the applicant's home country.

For applicants who have registered with the university on an existing visa and are applying for a new visa to study with the University of Greenwich the universities withdrawal/interruption refund policy will apply.

Deposits CANNOT be paid by cheque, credit/debit card or cash. Accepted methods of payment are:

- Bank draft made payable to the University of Greenwich and forwarded to:

University of Greenwich
International Office
Room 201, Fry Building
Southwood Site
Avery Hill Campus
Avery Hill Road
Eltham
London SE9 2UG
United Kingdom

- Electronic transfer direct to the university bank account (please note that your bank may charge you for this service):

Barclays Bank
41 Woolwich New Road
London SE18 6NU
United Kingdom

Sort code: 20-98-57

Account number: 00904244

IBAN number:
GB03BARC20985700904244

SWIFT/BIC number: BARCGB22

Please ensure that your full name, date of birth and student reference number (if known) are listed on the back of the draft.

If using electronic transfer, ensure your bank includes these details.

Please contact the International Office once you believe your funds have arrived (usually four working days after the transfer) so we can check the payment and process your Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies if appropriate.

Payment of fees at registration

During online registration you will be given a summary of the tuition fees payable, less any discounts. In order to complete your registration, you will be asked to enter your credit/debit card details; if you do not have a credit/debit card, you can pay your fees by bank transfer. If you are transferring funds to pay for tuition fees, please see the bank details given above.

In addition, continuing students may pay via the student portal. Log on to <https://portal.gre.ac.uk> and click on the 'My Learning' tab. You will require your student ID and password.

Discount for full payment

International students may receive a 5% discount on their net tuition fees if these are paid in full and received by the university by the 30 September for September starters and paid in full and received by the university by the 31 January for January starters. MPharm students are not eligible for this discount. The 5% discount will be for net tuition fees only and will not apply to accommodation charges.

Payment plan

After your deposit and all other discounts are applied, the remaining balance can be paid in two equal payments. You will be asked to pay the first 50% of the balance at registration.

For September starters, the final payment will be due before the last Friday in January; for January starters, the final payment will be due before the last Friday in May.

Example: 2012–13	Fee
Postgraduate fee	£10,650
Deposit paid	£3,000
Nationality Scholarship	£1,000
Balance	£6,650
Minimum payment at registration	£3,325
Balance due (last Friday in January for September starters and last Friday in May for January starters).	£3,325

You cannot be admitted as a registered student of the university until acceptable arrangements for payment of fees are agreed. If your government or an employer is sponsoring you, please bring a letter confirming this. However, please note that students are responsible for any fee payment not made by the sponsor. Letters of sponsorship from individuals (e.g. parents, relatives or friends) are not acceptable.

Student withdrawal, interruption, deferral or non-registration

- Where a student withdraws from a programme, the deposit is not refundable. Any monies due to be refunded will be returned to the student's home country.
- A student's withdrawal must conform to the university's withdrawal policy.
- Where an applicant fails to register, the deposit is not refundable or transferable.
- Requests for a student to defer or interrupt their studies will only be allowed in exceptional circumstances and must conform to university policy.
- The university will notify the UK Border Agency when a student withdraws, interrupts or defers from study.

Failure to pay fees

Registration for continuing students is dependant on the previous year's fees being paid in full. As in previous years, student debtors are subject to an embargo on the assessment of work, award of certificates, attendance at graduation ceremonies and provision of references, or re-enrolment for failure to pay fees. This applies to all fees, such as tuition fees, halls of residence fees or fines for the replacement of library books, and any debt, whatsoever, to the university.

Resitting and resubmission

Where a student needs to retake a course, a pro rata tuition charge will be payable based on the number of credits studied. Students who repeat or interrupt will pay the published annual fee applicable for the year of re-entry.

Students studying on a visa

An international student studying on a student visa must be studying on a full-time programme. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that they are in possession of an appropriate and valid visa. Details of fees payable to the UK government for processing extensions to visas are available at www.ukvisas.gov.uk.

Once you have paid your deposit and met all your offer conditions, please contact the International Office and we will assist you in obtaining a Confirmation of Acceptance of Studies. Please ensure that you include your full name, date of birth and student reference number in all communications.

Note

Unless arrangements as set out in this leaflet are agreed at registration, you will be unable to register. Should you have any queries or problems regarding your fees, please contact your local Student Centre or the International Office.

The university reserves the right to change any fees at any time without notice. Fees will be subject each year to a small increase for inflation. The university will endeavour to minimise any increases.

The fees for any new programmes will be determined after validation.
