Student life, you will study hard but you can also play hard and with accommodation guaranteed for all new students you're social life begins at home where it is easy to make new friends.

There is plenty of opportunity to have fun. You can head for the bright lights of the city where you can enjoy anything from a show to a music event or stay closer to home and try out a local restaurant or cinema.

Shop till you drop at London's famous markets or visit Bluewater, one of Europe's leading shopping centres.

The students union is a real hub of student activity where you can have a drink and chill out with friends or grab a bite to eat at one of our campus cafés.

Share your interests with like-minded people at one of the universities clubs or student societies. There truly is something for everyone.

There is plenty of culture around you no matter which campus you are on from the incredible sights and sounds of London to Rochester, the home of Dickens and its impressive castle. It's all within easy reach.

Be the first to enjoy a production of one of the many local theatres, admire creative works from fine art to modern expeditions or emerge yourself in other cultures, whatever your personal taste you will definitely be catered for.

It is easy to stay active during your time here; the beautiful parks in Greenwich and Avery Hill are perfect for a run or just a kick about with friends.

You can also take a short drive to the Kent coast where you will find the attractive beaches of Whitstable and Broadstairs.

We have fantastic sports facilities, with well equipped state-of-the-art gyms and a range of indoor and outdoor sports from netball and table tennis to cricket and football. How you stay active is up to you.

Alice Hilling
