

Language and Culture

Transcript

Voice-over

Whether it is French, English or Spanish, learning a new language will broaden your horizons. You will also develop an understanding of the culture, society and politics in the countries where it is spoken. Learn from experts in their field, many of whom are native speakers and study independently in our multimedia language centre where you will find specialist equipment and materials.

Zoe Pettit

Senior Lecturer in French and Director of Learning and Quality

“The idea really is to produce students who are first class linguists who can go out into the world and communicate effectively across cultures in international context.”

Roisin Geoghegan

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“The course covers every aspect of international studies from language, culture, society, politics, history and linguistics.”

Natalie Nazadze

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“Students are free in their choices.”

Zoe Pettit

Senior Lecturer in French and Director of Learning and Quality

“We have quite a few students from different backgrounds, different nationalities which is actually in a programme which has got an international focus is really important and adds quite a lot of vitality.”

Dr Maria Arche

Programme Leader, English Language Teaching

“They become English teachers in the best environment because we are in the UK and we are in London.”

Robert Harrod-Green

TESOL/English Language Teaching Student

“I have been able to apply it to my previous experiences, not just in English language teaching but throughout my career.”

Roisin Geoghegan

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“It covers every single country. It is not just Europe, it is the whole world, and there is so much range.”

Zoe Pettit

Senior Lecturer in French and Director of Learning and Quality

“We have got two undergraduate programmes, BA Hons in International Studies Language and Culture and the second one is BA Hons TESOL and English Language Teaching.”

Dr Maria Arche

Programme Leader, English Language Teaching

“We offer measures of linguistics, their meaning in language, language communication and society.”

Zoe Pettit

Senior Lecturer in French and Director of Learning and Quality

“We also offer languages which students can take from across the university.”

Paulina Wasiak

TESOL/English Language Teaching Student

“I have always been interested in the nature of the English language and I wanted to deluge the technical aspect of it.”

Dr Maria Arche

Programme Leader, English Language Teaching

“Our students develop a wide range of skills which go from analytical skills to critical thinking skills and communication skills.”

Robert Harrod-Green

TESOL/English Language Teaching Student

“The biggest resource in the university is always the lecturers.”

Natalie Nazadze

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“The courses are very interesting. Lecturers are very approachable and no matter what the issue is they are always there to help.”

Roisin Geoghegan

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“There is always a language assistant on board to help us with any questions or to look over work with us.”

Paulina Wasiak

TESOL/English Language Teaching Student

“I thought it would be a wonderful opportunity for me to travel from country to country and deliver English language to speakers of other languages.”

Language and Culture

Transcript

Roisin Geoghegan

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“There are a lot of prospects ahead of me. I’m not sure whether I’m going to do work placement or go into a Master’s but I think either way it looks really optimistic.”

Natalie Nazadze

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“I have spent that most important three years of my university life at the University of Greenwich.”

Roisin Geoghegan

International Studies, Language and Culture Student

“If you are looking for a view of the world and how it works then it is definitely the right course.”

Voice-over

Study language and culture and make the world of difference to your career.

University of Greenwich: visit www.gre.ac.uk

