

Nepali student experience

Transcript

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

"I am from Nepal and the reason I came to the University of Greenwich is because I saw the national survey of the students and it was number one ranking by the students."

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

"Every day is good, studying here in totally new circumstances."

Reeta Pokhard

Accountancy and Finance Student

"I had lots of expectations, which I found here. Mostly, the best things I found here are the library and the computer system which is excellent."

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

"I like the Medway Campus, it is silent and peaceful. You can engage yourself in what you came here for."

Reeta Pokhard

Accountancy and Finance Student

"The accommodation is superb."

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

"The facilities are good, such as the transport facility, I found this very good."

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

"I like every part of my studies. Either it is a lecture or tutorial, my friends and I are really supported."

Reeta Pokhard

Accountancy and Finance Student

"The lecturers are very co-operative. They help us a lot."

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

"Whatever queries we have, we can approach them very easily and get answers."

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

"I think the UK is one of the best places for education in the world."

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

"I have chosen this programme in the UK so that I can be gain an advanced knowledge and world prospective, so I found it more interesting than what I studied as an undergraduate. It is more focused towards research and new developments."

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

"I have gained self-confidence and courage that makes me believe I can do anything."

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

"The social life is good. You can go around with your friends. There is a boat race at the Medway Campus."

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

"I like the UK society."

Reeta Pokhard

Accountancy and Finance Student

"Everyone seems to be happy. You must go to London once. I like to go to the cinema house. The clubs are wonderful and we can fill our weekends very entertainingly."

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

"There was a representative from the University of Greenwich in Nepal so I met her and got my application approved. Then I just applied for a visa."

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

"They were supportive. They called me and asked if I wanted to apply saying they were here to support me and not to worry."

Reeta Pokhard

Accountancy and Finance Student

"When I come here I pop into the international student advisor and they let me know to do this and that and then I could find places that I should go and what to do."

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

"They helped me with my documents amongst other things."

Nepali student experience

Transcript

Saket Keyal

Pharmaceutical Sciences Student

“I will be looking for a job which gives me some skills in the UK and then I will go back to my country and start my own business. I would recommend the University of Greenwich very nicely to the people of my country.”

Nischal Raj Dawadi

Business Studies with Finance Student

“It is a dream come true.”

University of Greenwich: visit www.gre.ac.uk

