

Nigerian student experience – University of Greenwich

Transcript

Valerie Kerri

Computing Student

“I’m from Nigeria and I enjoy studying at the University of Greenwich because it’s learning a new experience. I’m experiencing something that I couldn’t possibly have if I was studying in Nigeria.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“Studying at the University of Greenwich is an experience which I enjoy. I enjoy everything about it from the academic aspects to the social aspects. Even the environment is awesome.”

Alex Nneka Onyeagwu

Human Resource Management Student

“Greenwich is a heritage site and just being here is really great for me.”

Valerie Kerri

Computing Student

I love the buildings most about the Greenwich Campus. I think it is the most beautiful campus.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“The equality and diversity aspect of the university is out of this world.”

Alex Nneka Onyeagwu

Human Resource Management Student

“Facilities here are wonderful, especially the library, I haven’t looked for a book and not found it.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“The lecturers are a fantastic set of people.”

Alex Nneka Onyeagwu

Human Resource Management Student

“It’s more like having a one to one conversation with a friend.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“I’m already picking many of them out as my role models, as my mentors, because they’re supportive. I’ve never had that kind of support in my life. Without them I don’t think I would have been able to get the kind of grades that I’ve come out with.”

Valerie Kerri

Computing Student

“It’s wonderful living in London. I don’t feel excluded; I don’t feel not at home. I feel welcome everywhere I go.”

Alex Nneka Onyeagwu

Human Resource Management Student

“In Nigeria things don’t go very fast so for me, here, the trains, the buses, everything is perfect and things work.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“Also you have very good social life.”

Alex Nneka Onyeagwu

Human Resource Management Student

“I’ve tried to experience as much as possible.”

Valerie Kerri

Computing Student

“I have travelled to Birmingham, Manchester.”

Alex Nneka Onyeagwu

Human Resource Management Student

“I have been to Amsterdam and Belgium.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“The agents representing the University of Greenwich back in Lagos were supportive from beginning to end. They gave advice on how to get a visa and life in the UK. I never had time to think about other options that I had, I was just concentrating that, yes, this is the university I want to go to.”

Valerie Kerri

Computing Student

“The International office has helped me with a lot of enquiries and problems I had, especially when I thought of extending my student visa.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“The University of Greenwich is not just a place where you study, learn and get your degree and go, the facilities and experiences that you get here are very useful outside.”

Valerie Kerri

Computing Student

“After completing my Master’s degree here I hope to start up a consultancy in Nigeria.”

Nigerian student experience – University of Greenwich

---

Transcript

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“Immediately after my degree, it’s about me getting a good job.”

Alex Nneka Onyeagwu

Human Resource Management Student

“I would strongly recommend the University of Greenwich to anyone back home because this is a home for me as well. There are lots of Nigerian students here; I don’t feel like I’m in a foreign place. I’m really at home at the University of Greenwich. I would recommend it to anyone.”

Valerie Kerri

Computing Student

“I would most definitely recommend the University of Greenwich. It’s a wonderful place.”

Akintomide Oladeno

Computer Systems and Networking Student

“When you are looking for something more than a university, come to University of Greenwich. You get everything here. The University of Greenwich gives me the confidence to face the outside world when I’ve finished my degree. I am more than satisfied with the University of Greenwich, more than satisfied.”

University of Greenwich: visit www.gre.ac.uk

