

Student Welfare

Transcript

Voice-over

Your welfare is important to us and if you need extra support or guidance, help is always on hand.

You will find a Student Centre on each campus. They are a hub for advice and information. Our Money Doctors can help with financial issues. For personal problems there is confidential counselling and our Listening Ears network.

Whatever your needs there is specialist help available. Our Guidance & Employability Team provides a wide range of services from voluntary work to helping you find a career after you graduate.

Bablu Singh

Director of Research

“My first point of contact when I came to university was the Student Centre and I’ve just one word to explain their services, just excellent.”

Michelle Barrett

Visa Administrator

“We have three Student Centres, one at Medway, one at Avery Hill and one at Greenwich.”

Lauren Corrigan

Finance Office & Money Doctor

“Services include student finance, disability and dyslexia and the international student advisory service. A lot of students who come to the university see student finance as a service which only collects tuition fees but we are not, we also give advice and information to students.”

Naz Alam

JobShop Administrator

“Helping students find jobs and counselling as well for students that might be going through problems in their personal life.”

Lauren Corrigan

Finance Office & Money Doctor

“We give a lot of advice, we process the funds and bursaries and scholarships. We’ve helped a lot of students’ secure additional financial support.”

Bablu Singh

Central Recruitment Section Ambassador

“They always have a ready to help attitude whenever you go to the Student Centre.”

Lauren Corrigan

Finance Office & Money Doctor

“They can contact us by telephone, they can e-mail us.”

Bablu Singh

Central Recruitment Section Ambassador

“It is just a matter of giving a call to the Student Centre and they were very happy to answer my questions.”

Lauren Corrigan

Finance Office & Money Doctor

“The Money Doctors is a new initiative aimed at giving students support mainly targeted at money management, encouraging students to manage their money more effectively and efficiently. We do a budget planner with them to look at their income and their expenditure. Our budget planner is available online for students to download before they come to university.”

Naz Alam

JobShop Administrator

“The university has its own department which is focused on helping students develop on their employability skills and they can use the services two years after they have graduated.”

Bablu Singh

Central Recruitment Section Ambassador

“The JobShop really helped me in getting a job within the university.”

Kweku Baiden

Computing Student

“It helped me really creative a more professional CV and now if I take my CV out there I feel so proud.”

Naz Alam

JobShop Administrator

“There is a counsellor based on each campus, just someone to sit with to explain any problems and get some advice off them.”

Ractina Chopra

Early Years Student

“Being a Mum I get a lot of support.”

Urszula Niedzwiedz

Media and Communications Student

“After the age of two years old, the children can attend a university nursery.”

Student Welfare

Transcript

Freddy Sullivan-Wallace

Politics Student

“There is a dedicated dyslexia department at this university where you can arrange meetings if you are struggling with certain things and they also offer drop in sessions.”

Bablu Singh

Central Recruitment Section Ambassador

“The university also takes absolute measures providing services to people who are physically challenged.”

Lauren Corrigan

Finance Office & Money Doctor

“We offer a range of information and advice, students can contact us immediately and we are able to deal with the problem efficiently.”

Voice-over

We're here to support you.

University of Greenwich: visit www.gre.ac.uk

